

I believe the service provided by K-LOVE is very much in the public interest. It's one of the most popular family-based broadcasts in Colorado and is invaluable to me, providing positive and encouraging music to the Christian community. It can be heard across the state on various radio stations. Its loss would be greatly felt by myself and the Christian community in Colorado. Thank you for listening!